Columbus State University

SHORT TERM - Visiting Artist and Scholar Residency Program

The Department of Art at CSU is now accepting applications for our Visiting Artist and Scholar Program to give a public lecture, student critiques, and present a workshop or classroom presentations. The program is open to Studio artists, Art Historians, Art Critics, and Curators. There are two positions available for a 1- 4 week period.

OCTOBER 2010 or FEBRUARY 2011

The Department of Art

Columbus State University, Department of Art is located in the southwest part of Georgia by the border of the Chatahoochee River and Alabama. The Department supports the larger University goals of fostering educational, cultural, social and economic growth in Georgia and beyond. We educate students in Art History, Studio Art and Art Education, awarding Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Science in Education, and Master of Education degrees. Our exhibitions and visiting artists enhance our curriculum and enrich our non-student community.

The Department of Art facility is dedicated to foster the development of our students, faculty, and resident artist/ scholar. The Corn Center for the Visual Arts, which was completed in December 2006, contains over 30,000 square feet of purpose-built art and design studios including state of the art studios dedicated to each programming area, two dedicated critique rooms, resource space, galleries, and student lounge area.

Carpenters Hall is located about one block from the Corn Center for the Visual Arts. One-half of the first floor of the building houses the Art History teaching spaces and the Art History Resource Room and Student Library.

The Media Lab, located on the ground floor of Yancey Center, One Arsenal Place is outfitted with Macintosh computers. The Media lab is designed to accommodate digital media courses such as Two Dimensional Design, Digital Photography and Digital Media.

Eligibility

The residency is intended as a professional development opportunity for Art Historians, Art Critic, Curators or Visual Artists in all media. Resident must have a terminal degree in the field or supply evidence of comparable experience. Artistic merit, scholarly merit and promise are the basis for selections.

Responsibilities of the Resident Artist/Scholar to the Department

The Visiting Residency Program has been established in order to enrich our curriculum and to expose our students and the city and regional communities to new ideas and techniques.

- The visiting Artist/Scholar will provide intellectual dialogue and aesthetic contribution with the students about their work.
- The Resident Artist/Scholar will be asked to lead a workshop or give classroom lectures in their discipline.
- The Resident Artist/ Scholar will give public lecture on their work.

FINANCIAL AWARD

Each Visiting Artist/Scholar Resident will receive $5000 research stipend. The Resident will be provided with studio space and housing. Resident is responsible for their own personal living expenses other than housing.
